

San Joaquin County Employment Opportunity Human Resources Benefits Manager

ABOUT THE POSITION

We're seeking an enthusiastic Benefits Manager to lead the County's employee benefits programs, connecting our workforce to comprehensive packages that truly make a difference. In this dynamic role, you'll manage a range of benefits, including health, dental, and vision plans, life insurance, deferred compensation, and voluntary benefits for both active and retired employees, all while ensuring compliance with state and federal regulations. You'll collaborate closely with brokers and the Director of Human Resources to negotiate contracts, evaluate proposals for cost-effectiveness, and oversee enrollment processes. As part of the Principal Leadership team, you'll play a key role in staff management, budget preparation, and the development of innovative programs that enhance employee health and productivity, all with the goal of delivering top-notch coverage and controlling costs. If you're ready to lead with purpose and make a real impact, this position is for you!

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal candidate for this position should be a seasoned professional with an in-depth understanding of employee benefits programs, adept at navigating complex regulations and demonstrating strong negotiation skills. Effective communication and leadership abilities are crucial, as this candidate will be responsible for analyzing benefit programs while supervising and training a team. Financial acumen is essential for budgeting and ensuring program sustainability. Additionally, the ideal candidate should stay current with industry trends and adapt to evolving regulations, ultimately serving as a dedicated advocate for employee well-being and effectively managing a comprehensive and efficient employee benefits program for the County. The position requires a candidate with extensive HRIS expertise who can effectively manage benefits administration and work closely with the Information Systems Division (ISD) on delivery of benefit services.

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches—from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture, and Recreation

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Stockton Symphony, San Joaquin County Ballet, and Stockton Civic Theater provide important experiences for children and adults. The multi-cultural community offers a diversity of views and opinions in its art and culture, providing a wealth of knowledge about past and present on canvas and stage.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is richness in the blending of cultures and ways that creates an air of celebration about individual customs, foods and cultures.

San Joaquin County government provides nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports. Annual family events include the Asparagus Festival, attended by thousands of fun-seekers from the County and beyond.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The County-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and a historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

Education

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public or private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus-Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University, and the San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The County's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Agriculture

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California. Almonds are the leading commodity with over 104,000 bearing acres. Milk, grapes, walnuts, and cherries round out the top crops, with an abundance of other produce. Grapes make up 91,000 bearing acres, much of which are wine grapes. There are over 85 wineries within the Lodi Appellation offer opportunities for tasting and special events.

Weekly farmers markets throughout the county offer a cornucopia of fresh fruit and vegetables. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside.

Housing

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes found mostly in central Stockton and downtown Lodi. San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
