San Joaquin County Employment Opportunity

Central Services Manager

Sheriff's Office

About the position

The Sheriff's Office is searching for a manager for the Central Services team. This management position is both challenging and rewarding, and requires candidates have central service related experience within a custodial facility. Central Service areas include labor deployment and materiel management in the operation of the Central Services Distribution Center, Inmate Commissary, and an eighty acre landscaping complex for the San Joaquin County Sheriff's Department.

The Central Services Manager will be responsible for making budget recommendations, participates in the selection process of employees, performance evaluations, maintaining inventory control and working with outside departments and agencies. The position is also responsible for establishing and maintaining standards of sanitation, safety and quality for inmate workers and will be given the opportunity to develop and complete special projects related to the division.

About the department

This position functions under the Sheriff's Custody Division's Inmate Programs which offers a wide range of programming and services for inmates. Programs and services are made available with the intent to provide the opportunity for inmates to be returned back to the community in equal or better condition both physically and psychologically than when received.

Inmate programs collaborates with other community based organizations to accomplish program goals of ensuring that inmates are receiving quality programs which they can continue upon their release. Agencies such as County Office of Education, Friends Outside, Salvation Army, El Concilio, Worknet, Child Support, Human Services Agency, and Correctional Health are just a few agencies who assist with achieving program goals.

SAN JOAQUIN
— COUNTY —
Greatness grows here.

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches-from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture, and Recreation

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Stockton Symphony, San Joaquin County Ballet, and Stockton Civic Theater provide important experiences for children and adults. The multi-cultural community offers a diversity of views and opinions in its art and culture, providing a wealth of knowledge about past and present on canvas and stage.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is richness in the blending of cultures and ways that creates an air of celebration about individual customs, foods and cultures.

San Joaquin County government provides nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports. Annual family events include the Asparagus Festival, attended by thousands of fun-seekers from the County and beyond.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The County-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and a historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

Education

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public or private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus-Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University, and the San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The County's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Agriculture

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California. Almonds are the leading commodity, with 87,300 bearing acres.

Grapes, walnuts, milk and eggs round out the top crops, with an abundance of other produce. Weekly farmers markets throughout the county offer a cornucopia of fresh fruit and vegetables. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside.

Housing

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes found mostly in central Stockton and downtown Lodi. San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
